Small Business Relief Program

The St. Louis County Small Business Relief ("SBR") Program will provide financial relief to small businesses that were closed during the Stay at Home Order. The grant can be used to pay for the costs of business interruption as a result of the business closing during the Stay at Home Order and to cover costs associated with reopening safely. Business interruption costs could include fixed operating costs during closure. Reopening costs could include acquiring personal protective equipment for employees or customers or installing plastic shields to reduce the risks of transmission between customers and employees.

Small Businesses (<50 employees) are strongly encouraged to apply for the St. Louis County's Small Business Relief Program. Up to $15,000 to pay for costs associated with business interruption and reopening safely. Deadline to apply is May 17.
